

Special attention is given to this area through conducting homeless services at various shelters or other facilities throughout the city. Appropriate training is provided for those interested in this activity.

Needed supplies (e.g., blankets, clothing, toiletries, food, etc.) for the homeless are solicited and provided to the shelters. Spiritual counseling and reading materials are also provided.